Incident Summary: On 4/27/2022, at 7:22 AM, officers were dispatched to take a report of gunshots into a door in the 100 block of S. Highland Ave, which had occurred the evening prior at 11:18 PM. The victim stated person(s) unknown fired a gun at her front door striking the deadbolt at least twice. The victim was not home when the shots were fired. She believes her ex-boyfriend shot at her home. Victim informed officers her ex-boyfriend had already shot up her car on a previous incident. This event was captured by ShotSpotter. One spent projectile was recovered at the base of the door. Another projectile was fused into the deadbolt and could not be recovered. No shell casings were recovered. The shots were fired one to three feet from the door based on the deadbolt being the only object struck by the three shots.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to contact Columbus Police Burglary Detective Majcher #1969 at 614-645-2229 or central Ohio Crime Stoppers at 614-461-TIPS(8477). You may remain anonymous.
